

Paul Kirvan

Paul Kirvan is an independent consultant and auditor in information technology with over 20 years experience in business continuity, disaster recovery, security, emergency management, telecommunications and IT auditing and over 25 years experience in technical writing/editing and public speaking. Mr. Kirvan has been directly involved with dozens of business continuity, security, emergency management and telecom consulting engagements, ranging from operational audits and strategy definition projects to plan design and implementation, program exercising, execution and maintenance, and RFP preparation and response. Mr. Kirvan is a Member of the New York Metro chapter of the ACP, a member of the board of The Business Continuity Institute and Member of the Board and Secretary of the BCI's USA Chapter. Mr. Kirvan is a Fellow of the BCI and a Certified Information Systems Security Professional.