

David Hutcheson, MBCI

David Hutcheson MBCI was one of the founding directors of Perth based Glen Abbot Ltd.; one of the leading Business Continuity and Pandemic Planning companies in the UK. David has many years of experience in Business Continuity and has worked with blue chip companies, public sector organisations and SMEs.

David is a regular speaker at UK and International conferences on Business Continuity and Pandemic Planning, and has recently returned from being the keynote speaker at a pandemic conference in Shanghai. David is the only BCI Certified trainer on Pandemic Planning in Europe and has been a regular media commentator since the recent outbreak of swine flu H1N1

David is Chair of the Institute of Directors in Tayside, a Board member of the IoD Scotland and serves on the Government's Public Procurement Committee.